Micheal, since you've left me this whole page to write on, I feel duty bound to use most of it up! Now that were almost ready to leave high school it seems that lots of us realize what a good thing we've got going - when it's almost too late.

What the hell am I supposed to talk about on this whole page? Hmm - - - - mm.

I'll talk about how glad I am to have had you in my class - even though we had no subjects together. You were great in the Junior Play and everybody could tell that you enjoy doing stuff like that - as also evidenced by your Talent Show performances. I think you just love to be around people, don't you. You've just about got more to say than any other person I know!

I'm glad I got to help y'all out in Glee Club this year, and Mr. Owens has done a terrific job I think - considering that this is the first year for it.

Did I ever tell you how much I enjoyed your newspaper article? It was very nicely done and it gave me a good feeling to know that I was in it - and that it stood for what it did. We've got a big job to do in this world, don't we? And next year we'll be out in the strange world for the first time and will have to become confident of ourselves and our ideals - so we can convince others that these ideas are right. I can only say that I'm glad to be a member of this generation, with its insight and human concern. I'm also glad I had the chance to know you. You are a unique outgoing person. Work hard and remember who you are. Take care.

The annual staff of the 1969 TAR-BO-RAH wishes to recognize the man who is the hub of all activity at our high school. This hard-working individual is faced with the complex job of co-ordinating the efforts of the school board with those of the faculty. Students and teachers encountering any type of problem immediately seek help or advice from this man whom they well know to be the top authority.

In addition to all the paper work and records that keep him busy in his office, this man is relied upon to perform innumerable other services when the needs arise. His sense of loyalty to our school and to his work has many times taken him extremely beyond the call of duty. His authority and guiding influence daily reach every student and faculty member at this school.

Therefore, for his indispensable service and for the benefit and progress of Tarboro High School, we, the annual staff, respectfully dedicate our 1969 TAR-BO-RAH to our principal, Mr. O. H. Forrest.

GIFTS

He gives nothing but worthless gold
  Who gives from a sense of duty;
But he who gives but a slender mite,
  And gives to that which is out of sight,
That thread of the all-sustaining Beauty
  Which runs through all and doth all unite, --
The hand cannot grasp the whole of his alms,
  The heart outstretches its eager palms,
For a god goes with it and makes it store
  To the soul that was starving in darkness before.

1968 Football

A Championship football team is made up of many things. The ingredients are hard work, determination, teamwork, size, speed, and good coaching.

Tarboro had 21 returning lettermen which included 11 seniors. The team had a lot of depth with at least 3 players at each position. The Tigers were bigger physically and had better overall speed than any other team in the history of the school.

The Tigers blended an explosive offense with a crushing defense. The team averaged 29 points a game while their opponents averaged just 10. A school record was established in one game when Tarboro scored 78 points. Ironically no person on the Tarboro squad scored more than once in that game.

In winning the Championship this season, the Tigers did something no other team has been able to do. They won the Northeastern Conference Championship 3 of the last 4 years!

Marion Kent scores easily.

Victory! It's well worth the price.

Marion Kent bulls for extra yardage.

Gang tackling was the key to Tiger defense.

Tigers Prove Themselves — at West Carteret

TARBORO 20 WEST CARTERET 13

The stone wall defensive line and the smooth, overwhelming offense proved to be too much for the 10 point favored Patriots. A T.D. in every period gave Tarboro a well-earned 27-20 victory to carry home.

Tigers Roll

TARBORO 36 HERTFORD 0

The Tigers launched their grid season with an impressive 36-0 shellacking of non-conference foe Hertford. It was the second straight season-opening victory for Tarboro over the Hertford Indians. The Tigers, though coach Alexander said they played raggedly at times, ran up 246 yards on offense and 48 on defense! Yes, the Ti-ga-tors held Hertford to - 48 yards rushing! Tarboro capitalized on nearly every opportunity to score and even collected a safety. The Tigers proved themselves a formidable opponent with the initial game of their 1968 gridiron campaign.

Randy Hughes battles a defender for a pass.

Tarboro Beats Archrivals

TARBORO 14 GREENVILLE 13

A one point scoreboard advantage doesn't tell the whole story about Tarboro's victory over archrival, Greenville. The penalty-ridden Tigers rolled up 4 more first downs and twice as many yards rushing as the Phantoms. Greenville scored its second T.D. late in the game but the Ti-ga-tors blocked the crucial extra point to prevent a tie which climaxed the ball-control victory!

Tarboro Explodes Past New Bern

TARBORO 41 NEW BERN 6

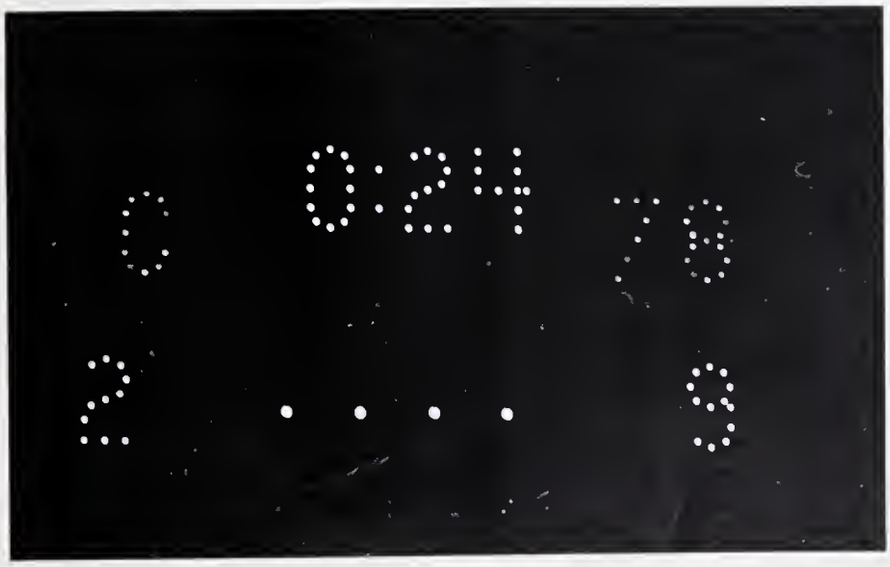
Leading only 13-6 at half-time, the Tigers charged back and exploded with 21 points in the third quarter. Tarboro unleashed a devastating ground game, racking up 388 yards while New Bern could only muster a meager 48 yards rushing against a stout defense. The entire defensive team turned out a brilliant game. The offensive line did a superb job opening huge holes for the Tiger backs.

Tigers Overwhelm Rams

TARBORO 78 HAVELOCK 0

The Tigers proved that they were not over-confident as they completely demolished Havelock by the score of 78-0. It was just one of those nights where Tarboro could do no wrong. A total of 12 different players scored for the visitors. Tarboro amassed 330 yards on the ground. The Tiger defense rushed for 32 as they pushed back the Rams. The defense scored 4 touchdowns and set up several more.

Need we say more?



Mama will be proud of me!

Tarboro Upset By Roanoke Rapids

TARBORO 20 ROANOKE RAPIDS 21

A fired-up Roanoke Rapids team handed Tarboro its only setback of the season. The Tigers were put in a hole to start with as the Jackets used a great kicking game to an advantage.

Roanoke Rapids struck quickly, but the Tigers fought back to pull within one point at half-time. The extra point was declared no good by the referees. In the second half Tarboro had a 98 yard kick-off return called back on a penalty.

The final score of 20-21 was a poor scale to grade the game because Tarboro had more first downs, yards rushing, and yards passing. This game left a bitter taste in the Tiger's mouth for the rest of the season.

Pursuit and tackle ... great truth #1047.

Opponent: "UNLEASH ME FROM THESE TIGERS."

Tarboro Bounces Back

TARBORO 42 EAST CARTERET 6

The Tigers came back with a decisive victory over the Mariners after a heart-breaking loss to Roanoke Rapids. A 28-0 first half proved to put the game on ice as Tarboro showed it was still number 1.

Tarboro Raps Washington

TARBORO 33 WASHINGTON 7

Tarboro put its powerful offense into high gear as the Tigers spoiled the Pam Pack's homecoming festivities. It was one of the team's best performances as the hard driving backs and the lightning quick linemen teamed up for touchdowns. The Tigers rode a 19-0 intermission lead into the third quarter when they added the frosting to the cake. A tight defense kept Washington backed up for most of the game. The Pack's lone score came late in the fourth quarter.

Jimmie Keel and Bill Hussey team up on a receiver.

Tigers Pick Up Big Homecoming Win Over Kinston

TARBORO 9 KINSTON 7

A defensive battle fought down to the wire-that's what the fans in Municipal Stadium saw the night of Tarboro's homecoming. However, the statistics add a little flavor to Tarboro's argument. The Tigers had 166 yards rushing to the Devils 91 and 12 first downs to their 7. The defense really held down a top offensive threat. This victory kept Tarboro in the running for the Conference Chair.

Tiger Victory Insures Play-Off Berth

TARBORO 20 ELIZABETH CITY 13

It was "the" game of the season for the Tigers. Tarboro had to have a win over Elizabeth City if they were to represent the NE-3A in the state play-offs.

Tarboro struck first blood in the first quarter, but E.C. bounced back quickly. The game then settled down to a hardhitting contest. The Tigers held on to a 13-6 half-time margin until they tallied again in the fourth quarter. The "Jackets" roared back with another score as time ran out on them.

Tigers Lose In Play-Off

TIGERS 7 NORTHERN DURHAM 12

The Tarboro Tigers fought valiantly, but a blocked punt on their first possession proved to be their downfall. The Tigers drove to the 30, 36, 25, and 12 yardlines in the first half but could not put points on the board. The second half was the same story for the Tigers. Late in the fourth quarter, Tarboro finally went ahead 7-6. The Blue Knights came back quickly and took the lead for good.

Distributive Education Clubs of America

DECA Officers: Jerry Skinner, Associate President; Wayne Crisp, President; Allen Cale, Vice-President; Brenda Pittman, Secretary; and Gail Robbins, Treasurer, practice the art of good salesmanship.

The Tarboro Chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America formulates personal career objectives and directs activities which relate the member to his position both as a DE student in school and as an employee in his job.

The DECA sponsored Rosa Watson as their Homecoming Candidate.

Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service are the ideals by which the members of the NHS are guided. Only Juniors and Seniors meeting its high standards of academic and personal excellence who are recommended by the faculty are awarded the honor of membership into this society.

Estelle B. Jenkins Chapter of the National Honor Society

The NHS sponsored Catherine Cooper as their Homecoming Candidate.

Advisor, Mrs. Guard; Editor, Laura Kinzinger, and Co-Editor, Kaye Pridgen discuss the assignments for the next deadline.

Tar-Hi-Tattler

Sports Editors Scott Fecho and Jack Wynn analyze the brilliant plays of the Tigator's last game.

The newspaper staff sponsored Becky Eagles as their Homecoming Candidate.

Working along with Creativity Editor Andrea Knight are Writers Brenda Walden, Patsy Stroud, Roberta Cashwell, Becky Vick, and Zelle Gilbert.

News Editor Jean Bryant proudly points out the merits of the finished product to staff members Stellyne Boyd, Penny Purvis, Donna Webb, Beth Williamson, Elizabeth Stocks, and Martha Bond Kittrell.

Comparing notes on newspaper layouts are Feature Editor, Susan Conyers, Business Manager, Clifton Hyman, Art Editor, Kenny Byrd, and Writers Mark Simpson, Carolyn Griffin, and Debra Bridgers.

1969 Tar-Bo-Rah Staff

Assistant Business Manager - Brad Bobbitt, Asst. Editor - Kathy Brock, Editor - Catherine Cooper, Advisor - Mrs. Ball, Business Manager - Martha Sexton find it hard to reach a unanimous decision.

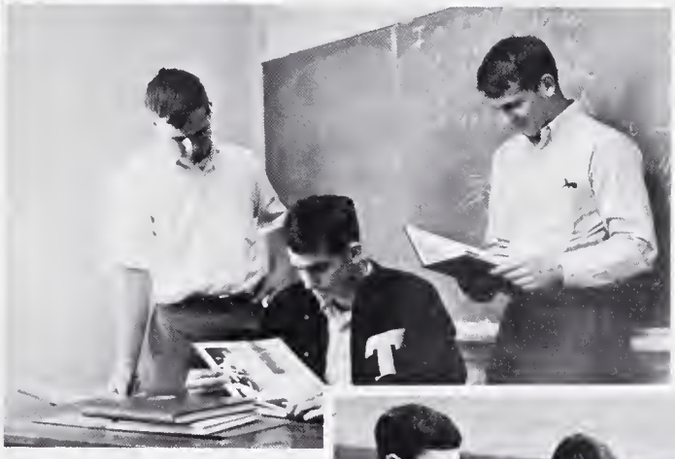
Student Life Editor, Lucinda Smith; Faculty and Administration Editor, Melissa Freshour; Curriculum Editor, Beverly Rollins; and Organization Editor, Betsy Bass decide what not to put in this year's annual.



David Check, Bo Robinson, and Jim Keel, Sports Editors, are happy to record the winning season of the great Tigers.

Class Editors, Tommy Andrews, Connie Kittinger, Pam Hendler, and Danny Mizell gather ideas for their layouts.

The deadline's this afternoon? You're kidding!

Typists Sandra Belch and Brenda Pittman are essential members of the Annual Staff, vital factors in meeting those ever-present deadlines.

The FTA sponsored Debra Walters as their Homecoming Candidate.

FTA Officers, President, Deborah Walters; Vice President, Kay Cobb; Treasurer, Teala Pigg; Historian, Martha Kittrell learn that teaching isn't as easy as it looks.

Tell him time as a stuff can be wasted
Tell him to be a fool every so often . . .
Tell him to be alone often and get at himself . . .
Tell him to be different from other people if it comes natural and easy being different
Let him seek deep for where he is a born natural.
He will be lonely enough to have time for the work he knows as his own.

Faculty, Administration, And Curriculum

Mrs. Julia Hammonds; Dr. Howard Hussey; Mr. Tom Grainger, chairman; Dail Holderness; and Polly Brown (not pictured) constitute the members of our school board whose persistent and diligent work results in educational improvements to our school.

Credit for our excellent school system goes to Mr. Martin, its hard-working superintendent.

Mr. Tom Grainger, chairman of the local school board, serves to expertly conduct the administration in its neverending duties.

MR. O. H. FORREST, Principal.

"Those cartwheels have got to go!"

MARTHA CREECH and GRACE WHITEHURST, Guidance Counselors.

"Another year, another annual!"

SUE COOKE, Secretary.

"Now who is that order for? . . . Rosemary's Baby?!?"

Columbus

Tarboro High School salutes COLUMBUS BRYANT for his unending devotion towards the maintenance of the school and grounds for over forty years. The students especially express their loving appreciation to Columbus for his care and "looking after them" during the four years of their education.

COLUMBUS: "This sure beats lifting weights to get big muscles."

Mrs. Wilson, the dietician, spends hours planning balanced lunches and with the help of the cooks, (front row - left to right) Tillie Williams, Martha Pettaway, Ruby Wooten, and Eva Jones, prepares delicious and nourishing meals.

The maids and janitors (from l. to r.) Blanche Andrews, Charlie Pearson, Columbus Bryant, Jimmy Knight, Curtis Sanders, and Francis Pettaway cooperate with each other to keep our school neat, clean, and attractive.

The Junior-Senior

A Night Of Enchantment In Hawaiian Paradise

Kathy Brock, one of the lovely island girls as sophomore class waitresses, holds up her favorite skirt that has become a little too small for her.

Hungry students help themselves to the luscious foods prepared by the Junior parents.

The Senior Class mascots, Cindy Proctor and Lynn Lewis, step from the "paradise hut" as Tom Long escorts Miss Edith Guill. Tom, last year's president of the Student Council, and Edith were the first student couple of 100 or more to be introduced.

Brad Bobbitt and Jimmy Keel seem to be having lots of fun being sailors. Sea sickness any one!

One of Mr. Forrest's more exciting moments came Junior-Senior Night as he had the pleasure of formally introducing the couples.

The all-conference boys from THS: David Check, Alex Hargrove, Paul Warren, Randy Hughes, Bo Robinson.

Senior mascot try-out day was hectic but fun. The winner is Jennifer Painter, the fifth little girl from the left.

The young gentleman chosen as boy mascot was Maxie Coker, the first boy on the left.

Animal, Vegetable or Mineral?

Hummm!

One of Coach Alexander's strategies is to confuse the opponent. If everyone is No. 68, it's bound to work.

Pep rallys are great fun for the actors and hams of the J.V. team.

Two Bits Four Bits . . .

Playing bob-jacks is a favorite Senior pastime. Brenda Braswell finds that you can earn a little money on the side that way, too!

Kathy Bradley looks like she can't decide whether to shoot the balls or tell them who's boss.

These lucky boys being initiated into the Key Club certainly feel that initiations are a wonderful part of high school activities.

Some of the Varsity football STARS had a great time hiding from the coaches during Homecoming.

Students have just as much fun tearing down floats as putting them together.

The girls initiated into the Monogram Club agree with the Key Club boys. The girls never intended to major in marble rolling at THS.

Duh - who me?

Flying lessons or swimming lessons ???

Homecoming Queen

Miss Barbara Kaye Jackson

Freshman Princess - DEBBIE BUSHMAN
Sophomore Princess - DEBBIE ROSENKOETTER
Junior Princess - EDITH GUILL.

Kaye Jackson is crowned by Miss Gail Flemming, the 1967 Queen. President Jeff Boyd holds the red velvet robe for the Queen.

THE QUEEN AND HER COURT: BACK ROW LEFT to RIGHT: Vicki Braddy, Rosa Watson, Hope McKeel, Kim Ellrod, Lucinda Smith, Phyllis Taylor, Catherine Cooper, Sandra Belch, Laura Kinzinger, Gail Tostoe, Debra Bridgers, Queen Kaye Jackson, Deborah Walters, Sharon Pulley, Becky Eagles, Susan Wilson, Connie Kittinger, Teala Pigg, Margaret Holland, Ava Livesay, Kathy Bradley, Vickie Bryant. CENTER FRONT: Debbie Rosenkoetter, Debbie Bushman, Edith Quill.

On behalf of the band Gerald Ward and Scott Fecho accept a 5th place trophy the band won in a contest in Rocky Mount.

The J.V. Cheerleaders wave as they ride in the homecoming parade.

Mrs. Gurganus and Mrs. White enjoy their milk and cookies while their kiddies nap.

Mrs. Dean is wondering how Danny Worrells got to be a homecoming queen candidate. Somebody must have slipped up!

The Annual Staff Homecoming float.

The annual staff study hall produces a little of everything but work.

Mr. Forest plots how to find out who sets off the firecrackers behind the building.

Laura Kinzinger was chosen from Tarboro High School to attend Governor's School.

Wonderful. Thanks for your help
Its been nice. I hope you have much success in the future
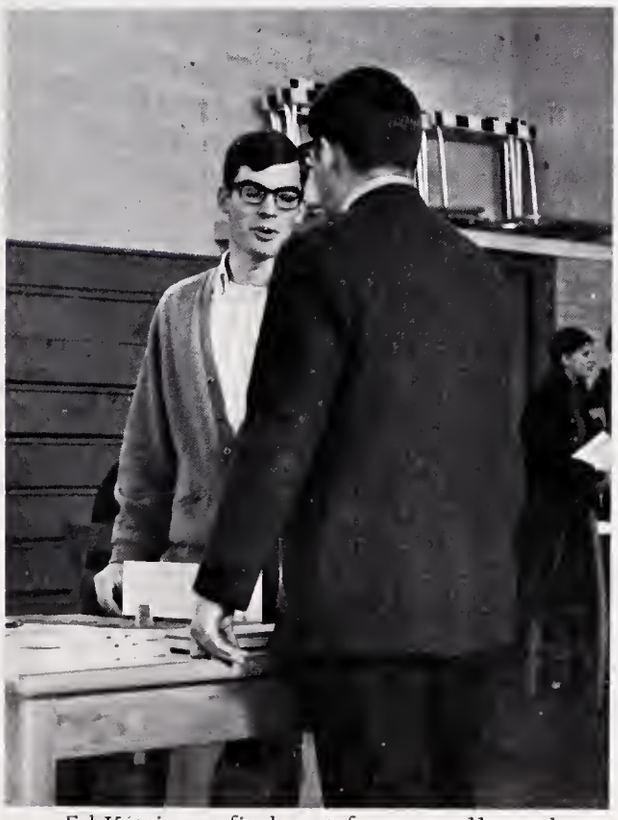
Belinda

For Seniors, College Day is serious business. Bob, Parker, and Danny consult with a college representative.

Catherine Cooper was given the Good Citizen Award by the Daughters of the American Revolution.



Ed Kittinger finds out from a college that he needs 2 more units of Calculus to enter "Conetoe Tech."

There's going to be a meeting here tomorrow night.

Chief Marshal - LAURA KINZINGER

1968 Marshals

THE MARSHALS FROM LEFT TO RIGHT: Sandra Belch, Laura Kinzinger, Ave Livesay, Martha Sexton, Brenda Braswell, Andrea Knight, Kim Ellrod, Catherine Cooper.

West Tarboro Youth Council

Jack Wynn learns a few "pro" shots at the Recreational Center.

Miss Sylvia Baker tries to read to a few of kids but the plot of CINDERELLA is too funny for all of them.

Alex Blow Hargrove

Athletic abilities, organizational leadership, and respectable character justify Alex's being named "best all round" by his classmates. His abundant enthusiasm and energy just naturally draw him to participate in the various activities at school.

Susan Rebecca Eagles

Becky Eagles is characterized by a determination to do her very best, a sincere personality, an inclination to work whole heartedly. Her vivacious spirit led to her being chosen as Varsity Tiger. Her modest manner and glowing friendliness make Becky one of the most delightful girls in the senior class.

Outstanding Seniors

Laura Lee Kinzinger

Laura's quiet composure and mature outlook distinguish her from others at Tarboro High. Piloted by determination, intelligence, and genuine sincerity, Laura's leadership is prominent as the editor of The Tar-Hi-Tattler.

Jeffrey Wayne Boyd

This year Jeff served as President of the student body, one of the most demanding jobs in the school. Despite all the pressures Jeff faced, he still remained thoughtful and considerate to the faculty and students. Jeff's co-operative nature was reflected in the many organizations of which he was a member.

Outstanding Seniors

Kimberly Faye Ellrod

A combination of good sense, fine taste, and friendly nature have contributed to Kim's congenial personality. Her ability to lead as well as her willingness to follow distinguish her as an important participant in school, religious, and civic activities.

Martha Anne Sexton

Cleverness and originality unite to make Martha an Outstanding Senior. In addition to her high intelligence, Martha deserves the consideration which her fellow students show towards her.

Outstanding Seniors

Melvin Smith Robinson

Bo's frequent smiles and friendly greetings are responsible for his pleasant individuality. His belief of high standards in sports and all phases of life contributes to the great respect with which other students regard him.

Ava Woody Livesay

Cheering on the Varsity Squad has enabled Ava to display her interests in high school activities. A wit of her own to answer everything she hears identifies her as strictly an individual. Her responsible nature allows Ava to perform her many tasks efficiently.

Outstanding Seniors

Catherine Lane Cooper

Catherine has earned the title of a diligent, patient worker as the editor of the 1969 Tar-Bo-Rah. In addition to her high scholastic achievements, she is known for her musical talents and principled character as shown by her D.A.R. Good Citizens Award.

Barbara Kaye Jackson

Kaye has served her school through her successful and untiring efforts in promoting school spirit. Her versatile personality accounts for her many friends and various activities at Tarboro High.

Outstanding Seniors

The cast of WAS THIS MURDER does some last minute work on the script.

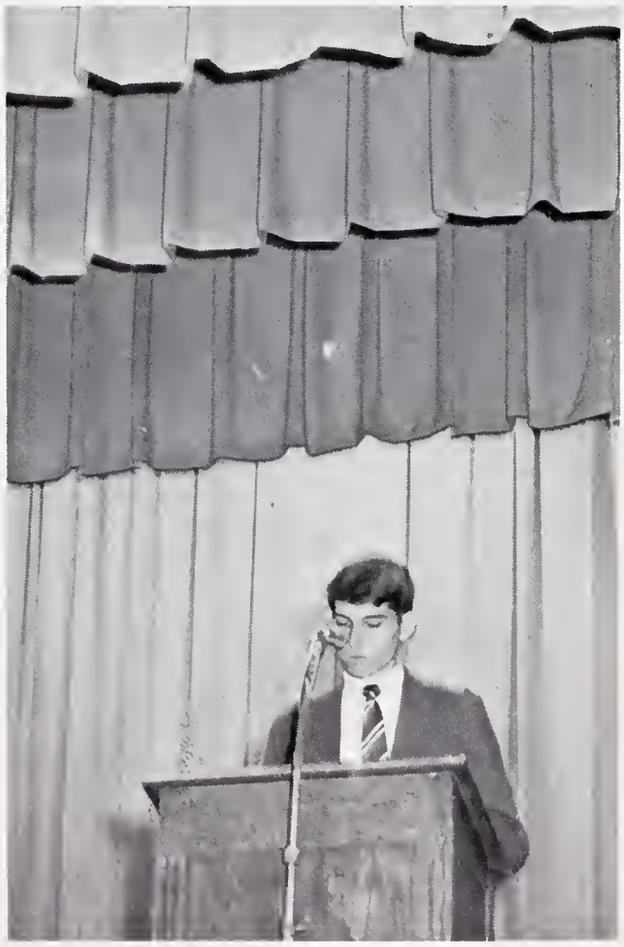
Ava Livesay and Deborah each light a candle during the National Honor Society Induction of new members. It is a highly impressive ceremony.

GENTLEMEN PREFER BLONDES. Jeff Boyd must have read the title to the 1967 Junior class play and decided to find out. Kathy Bradley seems to be the one.

Just think - our play got ten Academy awards.

This year Mrs. Zelle McNair was inducted as an honorary member of the Estelle B. Jenkins Chapter of the N.H.S. President of the N.H.S., Kim Ellrod escorts her to the stage. Mrs. McNair has served the chapter many years as advisor.

Really she's making Frankenstein's twin.



Jeff Boyd, President of the Student Council, speaks seriously with the students at assembly.

A Friend
Jerry Dixon

The Tar-Bo-Rahs of the past would have been tragic examples of yearbooks, had it not been for the guidance and authority of one man. Even though he is no longer with us, this man's contributions and influence can be seen within these very pages. His tremendous job was to make possible the production of yearbooks by young people who many times possessed not a single idea of the labor they were undertaking. After so many years of patient dedication, this individual came to have an almost unbelievable understanding of young people, which was surpassed only by his interest in them.

In recognition of the devotion and dedication shown by this man to high school students, and especially to the students of Tarboro High School, we set aside this page of the 1969 Tar-Bo-Rah in loving memory and honor of Lee H. Blackwell.

Michael - I'm sorry that we waited until our senior year to really get to know each other - you are quite a guy! You've helped the paper a lot, and I've enjoyed talking to you immensely during homeroom (under the auspicious eye of Mrs. Dean!) - I don't have to tell you that you shall go far and blah blah blah, because you've got such a friendly outgoing personality and just something special that makes you outstanding - let's get together sometime this summer & certainly next year, OK? Listen - take care and keep up that friendly smile & 'hello'!

Just me,
Laura

Michael
You have really been good

RESPECT for Mrs Fletcher

Michael,
For three years we have been here at J.H.S. and for me
you really have added a spark.
You are the most unforgettable character that I have encountered in Taylor. A pleasing personality and winning ways are two of your most outstanding qualities. Don't ever loose them.
Love, honor and respect
are yours; you earned the all.
Charms forever,

Al

Ashley,

I have known you for quite a while. This year we have had a lot of fun at dear old "JHS". In home-room especially we had our pros and cons. Fun is fun and we really did have it.

I know you are going to strive for the best of what ever you endeavor. You are a person of fun and when ever you are around there is laughter. May your life be filled with screams of joy and cries of success!

A friend always,

Joyce

Ashley

Seeing with you these few ~~years~~ have been very experiencing to me. Knowing you was really groovy (smile). I think you are the nicest young man I ever know in my life. And I really do mean that from the bottom of my heart. Cute, you really are. (smile) A young man who I always have liked for years, but never got to know you better (smile) May your life be full of laughter + success May God bless ~~you~~ you ever more

Love always Shirley Dew

Ashley,
I really have enjoyed being at Tarboro High with you & wish you the best of everything in the future. May you find that special someone as I have. Love always,

"Ashley,
It gives me great pleasure in writing these few lines in your book. Knowing you for the last pass two years, I have always considered you as a good friend.
We have had our up's and down
But here lately we can't seem to understand each other But I guess we aren't suppose to understand all things, So I would like to wish you and yours the very best of luck in the on coming years.
You have the ability to do any thing so make the very best of life,
Life has also much to offer so try to find the very best. Remember me always as one of your friends "no matter what"
